Guardians of Liberty Praise Vilia, the Notorious Mexican Bandit.

Commend Him and His Soldiers For Assaults on the Church.

Brutal Acts Against Priests and Nuns Commended by Society.

EXCHANGE FRIENDLY GREETINGS

Another instance of the ideala and aims of the Guardiana of Liberty, one of the numerous organizations engaged in the profitable business of inciting the ignorant and iow-minded to a bitter and superstitious hatred against the Catholio church, is furnished in October 22 issue of the Liherator, an anti-Cath-olic paper published in Magnoiia, Ark. In that issue there is to be found a copy of a letter aent by Alamo Court No. 1 of the Guardians of Liberty to Gen. Francisco Villa, the notorious Mexican bandit, praising him for the brutai acta of him-seif and his soidiery in destroying churches, killing and driving forth priests, and assaulting Sisters in his war on the church in Mexico. The letter in part reads as follows:

"Alamo Court No. 1, Guardiana of Liberty of Texas, a patriotic organization of American citizens, with courta throughout the entire United States, which has for its purpose the maintnining of the United States constitution and the com-piete aeparation of Church and State, desires to express to you and other patriotic Mexicans our hearty approval of your actiona and the great good and service you have and are rendering your people and the country. We would especially commend your actions in ridding your country of the baeast of human vuitures, the Catholic priesthood. Whenever women are forced to aecretly confess to a man who has never married and knows nothing of the aacrednesa of woman or of home, it is but natural for immorality to exist, and until this practice is stopped it is impossible to raise up a liberty loving, intelligent, patriotic, morai generation. asauring you of our appreciation of your invaiuable worth to your country, and trusting that you may continue your good work until the people of your country are freed indeed from the root of the trouble, the Roman Catholic church, in the language of the patriot, we would exclaim, 'Viva Mexico by Villa.'"

In reply Villa expresses "hia aincere thanka and very great pleasure' "the honorable society," and wishea that "this honorable society continue progressing every day for the weifsre of humanity and of civilization."

Both Vilia and "the honorable society" are in good company. They have found companiona of a like mind; they are proving anew the old adago that "birds of a feather flock together." The foul and putrid imaginings in which the aocalied

'patriotic' organization delights are eii known to us by this time. Of Vilia, despite the pathetic efforts of the daily press to shield his true character and the apparent indifference of the Government at Washington in regard to his savage actions, we also know enough to reveal the characteristics of the man who is now in control of affairs to a great degree in the Southern re-Reputable psriodicais such as the Outlook, while sympathizing with the revolutionary party in have acknowledged the gross, immorality of the man in charge of that revolution and of of hia followers. Viiia himseif is asid to have a mistress in almost every town which receives hia visitation; nor is this a mere private matter, for the course of gramme should be outlined at this the revolutionary army across the stricken country has been marked by a aeriea of revoiting orgies perpetrated moat frequently in the churches. The most bestiai practices have been committed in the most sacred places; and the brutal bandits have not even respected the of the Sisters, but have treated them in a manner which cency forbids repeating. Such are Mexico; such are the friends men who are now conducting it is a very sad com ntary indeed upon our so-cailed civilization and progress that in a enlightened Comn wealth a party such as the latter season. should exist and that the admini-tration at Washington, which was solicitous but a short time ago in regard to justice in Mexico, should ing in the face of such a disgraceful course of action on the part of those whom it assisted to come into the

WORRY OVERCOMES PRIEST.

It was necessary last Friday for officers to take the Rev. Christian Weigand, paator of St. Elizabeth's therefore of the utmost importance church at Curdsviile, adjacent to Owthat the Cardinal Secretary, besides ensboro, in charge. Father Weigand, who came to this diocese from Texas about a year ago, had two brothers in the European war. One was fighting with the Prussian army and the other with the Beigiana, Recently he received word that one of them had been killed in battle. He has been worrying over the war and it is feared the news of the death of his brother impaired his mind. He became violent Thursday, and that night refused to admit the officers to his home. Friday morning nnother priest persuaded him to submit and he was brought to Owensboro. It was arranged to send him to a sanatorium in St. Louis, and he was taken there that night.

COVINGTON.

Division 1, Ladies' Auxiliary, Covington, bas re-elected Mrs. Mary Monahan as County President for the ensuing two years, giving her a handsome majority. Miss Lula Mur-phy, the State President, was present and installed Mrs. Monahan. In a happy address she complimented the auxiliary upon its choice of one wbo by temperament and engaging personality was especially qualified to place the Covington division at the forefront of Kentucky Hibernianism. Several new members were initiated at thia meeting, the Membership Committee reporting Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affaira,

DEMOCRATS

Keep Kentucky in the Fold by Record Breaking Majorities.

One-Third of Beckham's Pinraiity Received in the Fifth District.

Hats Off to Frank McGrath and the Local Democratic Organization.

KLING'S WONDERFUL SHOWING

While many Democrats throughout the country are mourning the loas of their respective States those in Kentucky are rejoicing over the record-breaking majority given Beckham and Camden for the United States Senatorship, and in addition re-electing the nine Democratic Congressmen with the utmost ease-Barkiey in the First district winning by 5,600, Kincheloe in tho Second by 4,200, Thomas in the Third by 1,800, Johnson by 4,800 in the Fourth, Sheriey by 15,600 tho Fourth, Sheriey by 15,600 (plurality) in the Fifth, Rouse by 7,300 in the Sixth, Cantrill by 7,300 in the Sixth, Cantrill by 7,300 in the Eighth, and Fields by 2,500 in the Ninth. In the Tenth district Langley, the Republican, was re-elected by 3,800, and Powera in the Eleventh by 6,000 over tho Fusion nominee. Thus Kentucky still maintains its same representation in Congress, nine Democrata and two Republicans, while the two Senators are Democrats.

The success of the Democrats here especially wonderful when it is taken into consideration that Republicana had in ex-Gov. Willson, their nominee for Senator, possibly the strongest man in their party, with George W. Long and Aibert Scott, two veteran and astute cam-Nichoias, the Senatorial nominees, Progressives, like the American buffaio, are fast disappearing, and Axton'a only chance for company is to bring Duncan Clark back to Louisville.

The Democrats of Louisville and Jefferson county are especially proud of their showing in Tuesday's election, this district giving Beckbam one-third of his majority in the total vote of the State, and he has stated to representatives of Louisville Democracy that he is deeply grateful for the showing here and that nothing is too good for Louisvitie and this district in his opin-This result is especially markable when it is considered that in the recent primary Beckham only received 4,237 votes out of a total vote of 15,544 in the August primary, while last Tuesday he received a vote of 21,517, which gave him a piuraiity over Wilison 12.213 and a majority vote of 4.324 over both Wilson and Vance, this majority being exactly eighty-seven votes more than he received in the primary for the nomination. This showing of the Democracy in thia diatrict will dissipate forever any foeling that has heretofore exiated or was thought to exist between the Louisville and out-in-the-State Democrats, and most beneficial of aii, it will redound to the good business men here, who feit that there was a feeling between them and the buyers out in the principally because of this factional feeling among the Democrats.

primary was handled principally by Frank Dugan, John J. Barry and Edward Humphrey, and to great credit is due for their vailant fight in bia interests, they laboring under a severe handicap, while the succesa of the ticket this past is due to the untiring work Frank McGrath, Chsirman of the City and County Committee, weilded every faction into line and the Democratic organization worked precinct worker railying to icGrath's efforts, the result being that the victory was the greatsat in twenty years and Congressmen Sherley's majority the largest in ail of his seven races. Special mention is due the Forty-fourth precinct of the Seventh ward, where Beckham received 182 plurality; the Eighth precinct of the Eighth ward, whore he received 146 piuraiity, and the where he received 233 plurality, these three being the largest in the city, while St. Heien's precinct the county was the leader with 157

Being one of the original Trustees of the Baltimore Cathedral, it fell to his lot to purchase the property on which it was built. As President of the Baltimore iiibernian Society he co-operated with Father Moranville, pastor of St. Patrick's church, in establishing the first free parochial school in Baitimore. He was also one of the committee of seven citizens ap-pointed to provide for the defense of the city at the time of the bombard ment of Fort McHenry during the war of 1812. He died at the ripe age of seventy-two, leaving an immense estate to his widow, his two sons and two daughters, one of whom, Eliza Jane Tiernan, took her large share with her into the com munity of the Sisters of Mercy in Pittsburgh, to which city she removed after the death of her mother

ACTIVE WOMEN.

knows and confesses and practically recognizes that true nobility of character is justice crystallized, and that success is duty done effectively and valiantly. Such a man habituates himself to untiring fidelity to obscure duties no less than to duties that are conspicuous. lie is calm and bright and selfpossessed amid the heat and dust and turmoil of every-day life. He is content with the commendation of the Almighty. He can not find it in his heart to harbor malice, re-sentment or vindictiveness, Though envious calumny may sometimes tip the tongues and pens of others in his regard, he does not retailate in kind. In his living he is upright and unsullied. In his thinking he is accurate, careful and sufficiently independent to let people know that he has a mind and will of his own.

If he has knowledge he is willing to impart it to others. If he has wealth, he is truly charitable to the poor for God's sake—not to blazon his name upon his contributions nor with smug religiosity and self-satisfaction to proclaim to the gaping multitudes that earth is heaven, if he is a man in public life he is dominated by an abiding and never-failing sense of fairness honor and high-mindedness.

EMPEROR WILLIAM.

The character of Emperor William is not a mystery but an open book principal characteristic that binds the people of Germany to their leader and ruler is his sin-cerity. When he tella his people anything concerning the Government they accept it with implicit confidence, a confidence which he seems to have never betrayed. When selfgovernment takes the piace of monarchial government no ruler wiii be more heartily and unanimously elected to preside at the head of the Government than the Emperor of Germany. It is well for Americans to know and remember these facts, for in case men prominently con-nected with the European conflict speak the sincerity and trustworthi ness should be taken into considera-tion. This information does not come from a German source, but from a neutrni American viewpoint. It is given by an American who earnestly favors equal justice toward all nationalities.

PAT AND HIS AIM.

Pat was a witty young recruit, did pamphlets published by the Civil Service Commission of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, the reading of which we earnestly commend. They may be shought to task for his poor abouting, and told that he must do shooting, and told that he must do better at the next distance; were to be seven rounds of quick firing.
